Hearing Officer: Michael J. McElligott, Esquire

¹ Following remand of these matters from the US. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania to this hearing officer, and as set forth below, the parent and the PA Department of Education submitted a stipulated factual record in February 2017. While not made explicit between the parties, this decision is considered to be the result of a closed hearing process.

INTRODUCTION

[The student] ("student")² is a [late pre-teenaged] student residing in [redacted local school district]. The student qualifies under the terms of the Individuals with Disabilities in Education Improvement Act of 2004 ("IDEA")³ for specially designed instruction/related services as a student with emotional disturbance, the health impairment of attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, and speech/language impairment.

The procedural background in these matters is intricate. As set forth more fully below, the student attended the Walter D. Palmer Leadership Learning Partners Charter School ("[] CS"). The student attended CS since preschool. In October 2014, the student was placed by CS in a private school. In December 2014, the student's parent was informed by the CS, along with the families of other students attending the school, that it would cease operations. At that point, the parent enrolled the student in the [local school district], and the student currently attends a school in the [local school district].

In March 2015, the parent filed with the Office of Dispute Resolution ("ODR") a special education due process complaint against the CS to which ODR assigned the ODR file number 16024-1415AS. The complaint alleged that the CS had denied the student a free appropriate public education ("FAPE"). In the same complaint, parent alleged that, since CS was no longer operational, the Pennsylvania Department of Education ("PDE") was responsible for remedying the alleged denial of FAPE. ODR assigned ODR file number 16025-1415AS to this complaint against PDE.

Those complaints began a chain of subsequent filings, rulings, and appeals to federal court which, ultimately, culminated in the issuance of this decision at both ODR file numbers, which have been consolidated for purposes of issuing this final decision in both matters.

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

- A. The student attended the CS since preschool. (Hearing Officer Exhibit ["HO"]-1 Complaint at 16024-1415AS & 16025-1415AS ["Parent's Complaint"]; HO-7 Hearing Officer April 2015 Ruling/16024-1415AS ["Ruling at 16024-1415AS"]; HO-8 Hearing Officer April 2015 Ruling/16025 ["Ruling at 16025-1415AS"]).
- B. In October 2014, the student remained enrolled in CS but was placed in a private placement. (HO-1 Parent's Complaint).
- C. In May 2014, the parent, through an agreement negotiated by her counsel at the time, entered into an agreement with CS, including the CS undertaking obligations to establish a compensatory education fund.
 (HO-1 Parent's Complaint; HO-7 Ruling at 16024-1415AS; HO-8 Ruling at 16025-1415AS).

- D. On or about December 31, 2014, the CS closed its doors, ceased operations, and entered receivership/settlement-of-claims status in the hands of a liquidating trustee. (HO-6 Email re: Liquidating Trustee; HO-9 Federal Court October 2016 Opinion/Remand).
- E. Thereafter, the student enrolled in, and continues to be enrolled in, the [local school district]. (HO-1 Parent's Complaint; Stipulated Findings of Fact #15, #16, #17).
- F. In March 2015, parent, utilizing her current counsel, on behalf of student filed with ODR a special education due process complaint in one document, containing allegations against CS and PDE. Respectively, the complaints were assigned ODR file numbers 16024-1415AS and 16025-1415AS. (HO-1 Parent's Complaint.)
- G. Throughout these proceedings, an individual acting as a former administrator at CS, and utilizing a CS email address, has been intermittently responsive to requests and communications sent to him by this hearing officer. Throughout these proceedings and through the date of this decision, however, CS has not identified counsel nor has it responded through counsel in any substantive way. (HO-5 Email re: CS Contact).⁴

⁴ Over the period November 2016 – January 2017, counsel for both the parent and PDE, and this hearing officer, were collaborating about the potential for a stipulated factual record (see Procedural Background at O). A hearing session was scheduled in a companion case on February 1, 2017, to be convened at the offices of parent's counsel. Instead, the hearing session was cancelled and the date/time was utilized for counsel and the hearing officer to hold a conference call regarding the potential stipulations in the instant matter and similar companion cases. The CS individual, who has always been copied on communications by this hearing officer, was notified that the February 1st hearing session was cancelled. However, that

- H. PDE responded to the parent's March 2015 complaint, including in its filing a motion to dismiss. (HO-2 – PDE's Response to Complaint/Motion to Dismiss).
- I. The parent filed a response to PDE's motion to dismiss. Thereafter, PDE filed a reply to the parent's response to the motion. (HO-3 Parent's Response to PDE Motion; HO-4 PDE Reply to Parent's Response to PDE Motion).
- J. In April 2015, this hearing officer issued rulings dismissing the complaints at ODR file numbers 16024-1415AS and 16025-1415AS.
 (HO-7 Ruling at 16024-1415AS; HO-8 Ruling at 16025-1415AS).
- K. Parent's complaint at 16024-1415AS, filed against CS, was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, finding that the dispute between the parties was contractual in nature—arising out of the May 2014 settlement agreement—a dispute over which special education due process did not have jurisdiction. (HO-7 Ruling at 16024-1415AS).
- L. Parent's complaint at 16025-1415AS, filed against PDE, was dismissed for lack of ripeness, finding that any claim against PDE could proceed only after ascertaining the student's position vis a vis the CS after the receivership/settlement-of-claims process had run its course. (HO-8 Ruling at 16025-1415AS).

morning he appeared at the offices of parent's counsel, anticipating that he would be attending the cancelled hearing session. He was informed that the hearing session would not take place and, subsequently, this hearing officer emailed him regarding the stipulation process that was underway. HO-10.

- M. In July 2015, parent filed with the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania ("Court") an appeal of the dismissal of the complaints at 16024-1415AS and 16025-1415AS. (HO-9 Federal Court October 2016 Opinion/Remand).
- N. In October 2016, the Court issued its opinion, finding that the hearing officer rulings at ODR file numbers 16024-1415AS and 16025-1415AS were issued in error. In its order, the Court vacated those rulings and remanded these matters to this hearing officer "with instructions to hold due process hearings to determine in the first instance whether ([] CS) denied (student) a FAPE, and if so, in accordance with the concurrently issued Opinion, what remedy, if any, Plaintiffs are owed by Defendant Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Department of Education." (HO-9 Federal Court October 2016 Opinion/Remand, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 148904 at 9 [parentheticals edited for stylistic consistency]).
- O. Over the course of November and December 2016, and January 2017, counsel for the parent and PDE worked collaboratively with each other and with this hearing officer to see if this matter could be adjudicated on a stipulated factual record. Ultimately, that was the result and, in February 2017, the parent and PDE submitted factual stipulations (including stipulated exhibits) to serve as the factual basis of the decision. (HO-10 Emails re: Stipulated Record).
- P. While the parties stipulated to the factual record in these matters, set forth in the Stipulated Findings of Fact section below, including a

- compensatory education remedy, they could not reach agreement on one aspect of that remedy. (HO-11 Parent/PDE Stipulations).
- Q. Specifically, the parent and PDE stipulated to a quantitative amount of compensatory education hours as a remedy but could not stipulate as to an hourly rate for valuing those hours. (HO-11 Parent/PDE Stipulations).
- R. Each party submitted briefs on the issue of valuing the compensatory education hours. (HO-12 Parent's Brief re: Compensatory Education; HO-13 PDE's Brief re: Compensatory Education).
- S. This hearing officer accepted the stipulations and stipulated exhibits, both of which form the basis for this decision and order.⁵

time period March 17, 2013, through December 31, 2014, (the time period at issue in the above-captioned matter) and agree as follows:

Background

- 1. Parent, [], is the mother of [the student] ("student").
- 2. Student [is late pre-teenaged].
- 3. The Charter School ("[] CS") was a charter school until approximately December 31, 2014.
- 4. While it operated as a charter school, CS was a local education agency ("LEA").
- 5. While it operated as a charter school, CS received federal financial assistance.
- 6. PDE is Pennsylvania's state education agency ("SEA") as defined by the IDEA. 20 U.S.C. §1401(32).
- 7. PDE receives federal financial assistance.
- 8. At all times relevant, the student was identified with emotional disturbance, other health impairment due to attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, and speech or language impairment, as those terms are defined in the IDEA. 20 U.S.C. §1400 et seq..
- 9. As a result of the student's disabilities, at all times relevant, the student was eligible for special education services pursuant to the IDEA.
- 10. At all times relevant, the student was enrolled in CS.
- 11. At all times relevant, CS was the student's LEA, as defined by the IDEA. 20 U.S.C. §1401(19).
- 12. Student began attending CS in preschool.
- 13. On or around October 20, 2014, while still enrolled in CS, the student was placed at [a Private] School by the student's individualized education program ("IEP") team.
- 14. [Private] School is an Approved Private School ("APS") serving students with autism, neurological impairment, and emotional disturbance.

- 15. Following the CS's closure in December of 2014, the parent enrolled the student in the [local school district].
- 16. The student's current LEA is the [local school district].
- 17. The student is currently attending [a public school].
- 18. As the SEA, PDE has general supervisory obligations related to a LEA's implementation of the IDEA and is responsible for ensuring that eligible students receive a FAPE. 20 U.S.C. §1412(a)(11).
- 19. Parent contends that the CS is unable to provide any compensatory education remedy to the student due to the CS's closure.
- 20. PDE does not dispute that the CS is unable to provide any compensatory education remedy to the student.
- 21. Pursuant to the IDEA, PDE, as the SEA, is required to provide educational services to a student when a LEA is unable or unwilling to provide educational services to which a student is entitled. 20 U.S.C. §1413(g).
- 22. PDE will make available to the student the compensatory education services that CS owes to the student due to the CS's violations of the IDEA.
- 23. At some point during the 2013-2014 school year, there was a dispute or disagreement between the parent and CS related to the educational services that CS should have provided to the student.
- 24. On or about May 20, 2014, parent, with the advice of counsel, entered into a settlement agreement with CS ("settlement agreement").
- 25. The settlement agreement provided that the student was owed a certain amount of compensatory education.
- 26. The parties do not dispute that CS closed without providing the compensatory education identified in the settlement agreement as owed to the student.
- 27. On March 17, 2015, after CS closed, parent filed a due process complaint with ODR against CS and PDE.
- 28. ODR bifurcated the due process complaint, assigning separate docket numbers as to the CS (docketed at 16024-1415AS) and PDE (docketed at 16025-1415AS).

- 29. Parent first notified PDE on March 17, 2015, after CS closed, of concerns or issues associated with the education services that CS provided to the student with the filing of the due process complaint in this matter, docketed at 16025-1415AS.
- 30. On March 26, 2015, PDE sought dismissal of the due process complaint docketed at 16025-1415AS alleging that ODR lacked jurisdiction over PDE, and the parties briefed the issue.
- 31. On April 27, 2015, the hearing officer issued two rulings related to the student's due process complaint.
- 32. The April 27, 2015 ruling docketed at 16024-1415AS dismissed the due process complaint as to CS for lack of jurisdiction due to the existence of the settlement agreement, indicating that the parent must seek to enforce the settlement agreement through the CS's liquidation process.
- 33. The April 27, 2015 ruling docketed at 16025-1415AS denied PDE's motion to dismiss but dismissed the due process complaint as to PDE for lack of ripeness.
- 34. Parent appealed to federal court seeking remand to the hearing officer for a due process hearing associated with the time period prior to the May 20, 2014 settlement agreement ("T-1") as well as the time period following the May 20, 2014 settlement through the December closure of CS ("T-2").
- 35. The federal court vacated the hearing officer's rulings and remanded the cases for a due process hearing related to T-1 and T-2.

PDE's Investigation

- 36. PDE investigated the claims made in the March 17, 2015 due process complaint.
- 37. On May 6, 2015, PDE issued a fact-finding report regarding the claims set forth in the due process complaint related to the alleged failure of CS to provide the student with FAPE and sent a letter and a copy of the report to the parent on the same day. (Stipulated Exhibit-1).
- 38. PDE found that CS failed to provide the student with FAPE for the time period from March 17, 2013 (two years prior to the due process

- complaint) through October 13, 2014 and the student was owed 2,025 hours of compensatory education. (Stipulated Exhibit-1).
- 39. Following the federal court's remand for a due process hearing, PDE investigated further and issued an amended fact-finding report on December 20, 2016. (Stipulated Exhibit-2).
- 40. The amended fact-finding report explained that the student is owed 2,055 hours of compensatory education due to CS's failure to provide FAPE to the student for the time period March 17, 2013 (two years prior to the due process complaint) through October 17, 2014 (the last day the student attended CS). (Stipulated Exhibit-2).
- 41. The amended fact-finding report further explained that the student's behavior monitoring records and report cards indicate progress in academic and behavioral skills during the time of enrollment at the APS from October 20, 2014 through December 31, 2014. (Stipulated Exhibit-2).
- 42. Subsequently, upon consideration of additional information, PDE determined that the student is owed an additional 125 hours of compensatory education for the time period between October 20, 2014 (the student's first day at [Private] School) through December 31, 2014 (when CS closed). (Stipulated Exhibit-3, Stipulated Exhibit-4, Stipulated Exhibit-5, Stipulated Exhibit-6).
- 43. In resolution of this matter, the parties agree that the student is owed a total of 2,180 hours of compensatory education due to Palmer CS's violations of the IDEA.
- 44. PDE believes the compensatory education services should be valued at an average of $65 per hour for a total of no more than $141,700.
- 45. Parent believes the compensatory education should be valued at $78.67 per hour.
- 46. The compensatory education services may be used by the parent in her sole discretion, so long as:
 - a. the provider of the services is properly credentialed, licensed, or certified;
 - b. the use of the compensatory education is not intended to relieve the LEA of its obligation to provide the student with FAPE; and
 - c. the services take the form of appropriate developmental, remedial, or enriching instruction or services that further the goals of the student's current or future IEPs, remediate past denials of FAPE, or overcome the effects of the student's disability. These hours may be used for services, resources, and/or materials such as, but not limited to, tutoring, summer programs, after-school programs, or software.

47. Outside of the procedural Hearing Officer Exhibits developed over the course of these proceedings and incorporated as part of the stipulated record, the parties stipulate that the following documents are hereby incorporated by reference and admitted into the record by stipulation, and that the following documents comprise the entirety of the substantive evidence in this matter:

Stipulated Exhibit-1: Fact-Finding Report dated May 6, 2015 Stipulated Exhibit-2: Amended Fact-Finding Report dated

December 20, 2016

Stipulated Exhibit-3: Student's attendance record for 2014-

2015 school year

Stipulated Exhibit-4: Student report card from 2014-2015

school year

Stipulated Exhibit-5: Student discipline reports from T-2 Period

from [Private] School

Stipulated Exhibit 6: Student November 24, 2014 IEP

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The sole issue to be decided in this decision, the issue to which parent and PDE could not stipulate, is the value of the 2,180 hours of compensatory education which the parties agree is the appropriate compensatory education remedy. Parent asserts that each hour of compensatory education should be valued at $78.67. PDE asserts that each hour should be valued at $65.00.

Parent's argument centers on a calculation offered by this hearing officer in the consolidated decisions at X.J. v. (Palmer CS)/PDE, 15961-1415AS/15962-1415AS (McElligott, August 11, 2015). There, in a dispute involving a denial-of-FAPE claim by a student against the CS and PDE (under identical theories as in the instant case, although without any prior settlement agreement having been entered into between that family and CS), this hearing officer awarded compensatory education to the student, compensatory education for which PDE was responsible.

In disputes where compensatory education had been awarded, it had been the long-standing practice of this hearing officer to award compensatory education with a financial limit:

The costs to the District of providing the awarded hours of compensatory education must not exceed the full cost of the services that were denied. Full costs are the hourly salaries and fringe benefits that would have been paid to the District professionals who provided services to the student during the period of the denial of FAPE.'

This standard and language were employed consistently whenever this hearing officer found it necessary to award compensatory education. Uniformly, however, the exact calculation of the value of the compensatory education hours was left in the hands of parties, to be worked out between them based on this standard/language.⁶

In X.J. v. Palmer CS/PDE, however, because CS was defunct, and the exact calculation of the value of the compensatory education hours was likely to be impossible under this standard/language, this hearing officer provided an exact amount for the value of the compensatory education hours. The exact amount, $78.67, was calculated on a salary figure derived for teachers at the

School District of Philadelphia. Subsequently, two Pennsylvania special education hearing officers utilized this figure in valuing a compensatory education award for the purposes of a lump-sum to be placed in a compensatory education trust administered by a third party for the benefit of a student. [I.M. v. School District of Philadelphia, 16189-1415KE (Skidmore, January 8, 2016); Q.H. v. School District of Philadelphia, 16378-1415AS (Culleton, November 9, 2015)].

PDE argues that an hourly rate of $65.00 in valuing the compensatory education hours is reasonable and equitable. Similar to the hearing officer's calculation derived in X.J. v. Palmer CS/PDE, the calculation offered by PDE is based on average salaries for teachers in the [school district]. In many ways, it is a more precise, and arguably more reliable, calculation than the one developed by this hearing officer in X.J. v. Palmer CS/PDE.

On balance, as indicated in footnote 6, it would be the preference of this hearing officer, and would be in keeping with his current practice, to avoid any sense of valuing the compensatory education award, whether generally through the former standard/language or specifically through an exact hourly rate. But the parties have developed factual stipulations in every regard of the dispute except for an hourly rate in valuing the compensatory education hours and expect that this decision can break that impasse. Therefore, it is incumbent upon this hearing officer to speak to the issue with specificity.

The hourly rate in valuing the compensatory education award will be $78.67. The reason for this, however, is not rooted in the argument presented by the parent. Instead, it is rooted in equitable considerations related to the chronological nexus between the instant matter and X.J. v. (Palmer CS)/PDE, 15961-1415AS/15962-1415AS. The instant matter was initiated on March 17, 2015 with ODR file numbers 16024-1415AS and 16025-1415AS. The complaint which led to the decision at X.J. v. (Palmer CS)/PDE, 15961-1415AS/15962-1415AS was filed approximately two weeks prior to the complaint in the instant case. Therefore, it would be indefensible, in terms of the equities, for the compensatory education award for X.J. to be explicitly valued at $78.67 per hour and the award for H.F., in a complaint filed nearly contemporaneously—and resolved on the merits in largely the same way albeit some time later based on procedural complexities—, to be valued at some other hourly rate.

Accordingly, the exact value of the compensatory education award stipulated to between the parent and PDE shall be calculated utilizing an hourly rate of $78.67 per hour.

ORDER

In accord with the stipulated findings of fact and discussion set forth above, the parties agree that as the result of denial of FAPE by the now-defunct Charter School, the Pennsylvania Department of Education shall provide to H.F. 2,180 hours of compensatory education as a remedy. The value of these compensatory education hours shall be $78.67 per hour. Details related to the access, use, and nature of these compensatory education hours were stipulated between the parent and the Pennsylvania Department of Education at stipulated finding of fact #46 and are adopted verbatim as part of this order.
